

Engaged Learning, Engaged Families, Engaged Communities

Kentucky Adult Education is proud to partner with the National Center for Family Literacy for the

22nd National Conference on Family Literacy at the Galt House Hotel and Suites
Louisville, KY

April 28-30, 2013

Our joint planning will support KYAE's efforts to invest in program directors as administrative & instructional leaders.

Learn more about

- “Getting Ready for 2014 and 2014 GED® Test” presented by Nicole Chestang, GED Testing Service
- “LINCS, An Overview of Projects, Resources and Online Tools” presented by Beth Ponder, LINCS Region II Regional PD Center
- “En Camino Lesson Sets for College and Career Planning” presented by John Hunt, Center for Immigrant Education and Training, LaGuardia Community College
- “How Do You Know Your Students are ‘Getting It’?” presented by Dawn Hanzel, Collaborative Center for Literacy Development, University of Kentucky

KYAE will cover the registration cost for program directors and one additional staff member per county. KYAE will cover the cost of hotel accommodations for directors traveling over 40 miles from Louisville. If programs have performance funding or PD funds above the amount needed to support their required KYAE professional development, these funds may be used to cover hotel accommodations for the one additional staff attendee, as well as incidentals, mileage and meals not included in the conference program.
